

Gogo's Business Aviation Group Announces Top Dealers for 2013

April 15, 2014

BROOMFIELD, Colo., April 15, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Gogo Inc. (NASDAQ: GOGO), announces that its business aviation group, Aircell, has named the organizations receiving the company's highest dealer honor for 2013 – the Aircell 51,000 Five.

The award recognizes the highest-performing organizations in the company's global dealer and distributor network, as chosen by the Aircell executive team.

Recipients of the Aircell 51,000 Five award for 2013 are as follows (in alphabetical order):

- Cessna Citation Service Center
- Duncan Aviation
- Hawker Beechcraft Services
- West Star Aviation

Award selection is based on dealers' demonstrated commitment to helping customers get the most out of in-flight connectivity, as well as their technical expertise, sales performance and other factors.

Representing a pinnacle of achievement for an Aircell dealer, the award's name was inspired by the highest altitude reached by aircraft in the business aviation industry – 51,000 feet. Trophies were presented to each organization in a ceremony held recently during the Aircraft Electronics Association's Annual International Convention & Trade Show in Nashville, TN.
