

Gogo Business Aviation Adds Jet ConneX to Global Connectivity Portfolio

May 23, 2016

GENEVA, May 23, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- EBACE (stand D051) – Gogo Inc. (NASDAQ: GOGO), the leading provider of in-flight connectivity and wireless in-flight entertainment solutions to the global aero market, has added Jet ConneX service for business aircraft operators flying globally.

"Gogo is pleased to offer Jet ConneX service to the global business aviation market," said John Wade, Gogo Business Aviation's executive vice president and general manager. "Our customers expect Gogo to offer extensive, global support to business aircraft operators who purchase the service. Our back-office systems are in place and our team is prepared to support customers worldwide as the service comes on line."

With the addition of Jet ConneX service, Gogo Business Aviation offers one of the business aviation market's widest selections of in-flight voice and data services which include Gogo Biz[®], SwiftBroadband, Classic Aero, Swift64, Iridium, terrestrial 3G and Gogo Cloud for automated content delivery.

Gogo's support capabilities will allow Jet ConneX customers to integrate with other services – including other equipment, network services and in-flight entertainment – for a complete and seamless in-flight digital experience. Gogo customers also receive the convenience of single-source activation, support and consolidated monthly billing.

Gogo will offer innovative airtime and support programs for Jet ConneX, Inmarsat's Ka-band connectivity service, that will allow customers to select from a range of performance tiers and data packages, using the same Jet ConneX equipment package they have installed on their aircraft.
