Mr. Bayer will also be eligible to receive an annual performance bonus, with the amount to be determined by the Company's Compensation Committee in its sole discretion based on achievement of objectives established by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Bayer is also eligible to participate in all normal Company benefits, including the Company's 401(k), retirement, medical, dental and life and disability insurance plans and programs in accordance with the terms of such arrangements.

If Mr. Bayer's employment is terminated by the Company without cause, Mr. Bayer will be entitled to (i) continuation of his base salary for 12 months following his termination, (ii) reimbursement for COBRA premiums due to maintain substantially equivalent health insurance coverage for 12 months following his termination, (iii) payment of any earned but unpaid salary and accrued but unused paid time off, (iv) payment of any business expenses incurred but not reimbursed, and (v) payment of an award under the annual bonus program that has been approved by the Chief Executive Officer and the Company's board of directors, but not paid prior to termination. The payment of (i) and (ii) above shall be contingent on Mr. Bayer executing a separation agreement containing a general release of all claims against the Company. Mr. Bayer is subject to non-competition and non-solicitation covenants for one year after leaving the employment of the Company.
